

Our Stewardship of Time & Talent

God has gifted each of us with time and talents to share with others (Corinthians 12:4-7). When you choose to offer yourself in service to our parish community, you share the love of Jesus in a personal way.

Prayerfully review the many ministry opportunities provided. Please consider and select how you can serve others and in doing so, serve Christ. (Matthew 24:31-40)

A DISCIPLE'S RESPONSE

- The Catholic Community of St. Edith Stein employs people, we respond with new programs and new staff to growth issues, we offer ministries and services, we share a covenant partnership with Katy Christian Ministries, we maintain a Parish Office and care for property and facilities.
- The Catholic Community of St. Edith Stein worships, shares faith and enjoys fellowship in two new, beautiful buildings purchased with a long term loan. Debt service is a way of life and an integral part of total stewardship. (2Corinthians 9:6-11)
- All families and households of St. Edith Stein Catholic Church are called to share in the financial sacrifices necessary for sustaining current parish life and planning for future growth.
